PARISH NEWS

A hearty welcome to our guests and visitors. Please join us in the church hall after the Divine Liturgy for coffee and fellowship.

We extend birthday greetings to: Barbara Erickson (Oct. 2nd), Fr. Dn. Michael Abrahamson (Oct. 4th), Archdeacon Vasyl (Oct. 5th), and Gregg Charest (Oct. 7th), may God grant you all, Many, Happy Years. Многая літа

We are starting a “Kitchen Giving Tree” that will allow all parishioners (young and old alike—because what child doesn’t like to be part of things)?, to help. We will have an “item of the month” donation box in both the vestibule and the church hall. Here’s the item of the month for October: 5 pound bag Uncle Ben’s rice

Have you started your summer cleaning yet?? Save your stuff for us AND OUR CLOTHING DRIVE! Items can be brought to the church basement during coffee hour. Please, do not bring electronic devices (tv, computers and similar items). We will accept items for the Flea Market until Spring. Thank you! Дякую!

Can you help??? We are in need of some coffee hour volunteers!! Your “turn” would come up 2 to 3 times during the year. Explanation will be given on what is needed and how to set up, etc. Please see Cindy Charest to add your name. (The more volunteers we have, the fewer times we each have to volunteer!) Please give it your consideration! Thank you Дякую!

If you have any ideas for fund raisers for the church, please let a council member know! And a reminder, please consider our scrip program for gift cards is an excellent way for the church to benefit from your gift card purchases!! See Val Sternadore for more info.

THE VENERABLE EUPHROSYNE

Commemorated on September 25 / October 8

Euphrosyne was the daughter of Paphnutius, a wealthy and distinguished man of Alexandria. Her childless parents had besought God with prayer for the birth of a child, and they were given her. Her devout parents raised their daughter in the Christian Faith. Not wanting to enter into marriage, the young Euphrosyne hid from her father, changed into men's clothing, and presented herself to the abbot of a monastery as a eunuch of Emperor Theodosius, giving the name Smaragdus. The abbot received her, and turned her over to the spiritual father Agapitus for guidance. By her fasting and prayerful asceticism, Smaragdus quickly surpassed all the monks in that monastery. When she had completed thirty-eight years of strict asceticism, her father Paphnutius visited that monastery, and the abbot directed him to Smaragdus for prayer and counsel. Smaragdus recognized Paphnutius, but Paphnutius did not recognize Smaragdus. When the father confessed his grief for his lost daughter, Smaragdus told him not to lose hope, for he would see his daughter again in this life, and besought him to come again within three days. When Paphnutius came again, Smaragdus was on her deathbed. The dying one said to Paphnutius: "I am Euphrosyne, your daughter; you are my father!" For a long time, the father was unable to come to himself due to his severe shock. Then, the Blessed Euphrosyne breathed her last, and her father wept over her. After burying her, Paphnutius himself entered the monastery, and settled in the cell of his holy, reposed daughter. After ten years of asceticism, Paphnutius also entered into rest in the Lord.
